

Professional Contractor PROCON

» Five Cover Options in one Comprehensive Professional Liability Package

UAA now offers ProCon, a new Professional Liability product designed for your customers who are working and operating mobile plant and machinery.

Incorporating 5 key cover options into one package, ProCon provides a simple solution for your customers' business liability exposures, while eliminating the need for you to source individual standalone professional liability products. ProCon is ideally suited to small to medium sized businesses.

» Why ProCon?

ProCon addresses key business pressures such as;

- increased litigation
- corporate governance demands
- uninsured exposures
- financial losses that could go beyond total business assets
- contractual and statutory requirements
- legislation enforcement
- business diversification and risk management

» ProCon combines 5 Professional Liability Cover Options into one package providing general liability and financial loss cover, including:

1. Broadform Liability
2. Professional Civil Liability
3. Directors' and Officers' Liability
4. Statutory Liability
5. Employment Practices Liability
